From Douglas Jerrold's Shilling Mages THE "RAGGED SCHOOL." THE "RAGGED SCHOOL."

Radiant was the light that spread

From Hymettas' hooled head;
Stately shone its scalptor'd beam
In lissas' libroid stream:
Dasky groves where Paacy wander'd,
Pictur'd halls where Reason ponder'd;
Forms around of grace supernal,
Fanes above of awe eternal;

Faura show of a we eternal;
All that Nature's genial will,
All that Marie's ideal shill,
Fashions falt—at Albens wrought
Fashions falt—at Albens wrought
To assellarise be and sky, and ocean,
Spread on electric and sky, and ocean,
Securided with settled of Art,
Each high impulse of the heart;
And hode the 'taclife Passions prove
That Grace was Trails, and Wisdom, Love.

An't beneath another rule,

Papils of the "Rasged School,"

Was your tatelage condacted;

Clouds your narrow skies were shad

Beauty—Act, to wrong pursuading,

Virtue named but in upbraiding,

And Love left you uninstructed.

Hearhstone cold and cupbond bare
Were the grim preceptors there,
With fool erth and fexid dar,
Conforming minds to what they work in.

The' within this noiseme room,
Where the glimmer streaks the gloom
Aspirants ungainly pant;
The' disgrace to seen! and eye,
Offals of Hitmanity
